Celebrate our Volunteers!

An evening full of riddles and "Shovie Awards" was just the thing for our fabulous volunteers! Our award winners for 2009 were Ben Hamilton, George Daniel, and Marlene Cosgrove, but you are ALL winners to us! Check the web (click here) for a picture gallery of the evening, our thanks to Penyen Li and Rita Richardson!

Glass culture in the Gardens

Glass artist Craig Mitchell Smith, featured in national garden magazines, will be displaying his dazzling art glass sculptures in the MSU Horticulture Gardens this summer on June 19 and 20. The theme (naturally) will be "A Midsummer Night's Dream". Craig's shows are always completely unique. This past summer he created a very successful exhibition at Cooley Gardens and he currently has a show running at Dow Gardens.

Spring Garden Conference, March 13

Join long-time herbal cohorts and gardening friends, Susan Belsinger and Tina Marie Wilcox for a lively and entertaining program on the revival of the kitchen garden. And that's not all! The Spring Garden Program will also include a wide selection of workshops including 4-season vegetable gardening, composting techniques, building bamboo trellises, pruning, floral design, clematis care, herbs, woody ornamentals, IPM, gardening with kids and much more. Find all the details and registration information on our web site.
