

Jordan Tatter Scholarship in Horticulture
Sponsored by the Michigan Vegetable Council and the Michigan Horticultural Society

Graduate Student Application Form

Submission Deadline: October 16, 2009

Submit application to behe@msu.edu

Summary: The Jordan Tatter Scholarship in Horticulture was initiated in December 2003 by the Michigan Horticultural Society and the Michigan Vegetable Council. The scholarship provides support to students at Michigan State University pursuing a career in or working with the fruit and vegetable industries. Recipients of this scholarship are expected to attend the banquet at the Great Lakes Fruit and Vegetable Expo in Grand Rapids in early December.

Selection Criteria: Academic excellence, demonstrated leadership abilities, services to the Michigan fruit and vegetable industries, and career aspirations.

Submission requirements: Please complete this form and attach a 1-2 page resume and send them combined in one PDF file to behe@msu.edu by October 16, 2009.

Name:

Email address:

PID:

Degree sought: M.S. Ph.D.

Department/School:

Thesis/Dissertation title:

Anticipated graduation date:

Local address

Street:

City, Zip code:

Telephone number:

GPA:

Please provide a brief summary of your M.S. or Ph.D. research and how your work can impact Michigan fruit and vegetable industries (250 words maximum):

List all major scholarships, awards, and distinctions received, as well as recent presentations, publications, and posters related to the fruit and vegetable industries:

Organization participation and activities:

Provide a short description of your career aspirations and how this scholarship is important to your career: