About ILT Vignocchi

ILT was founded on the basic principles of Integrity, Honesty, and Trust. Over its more than forty-three year history, ILT has never lost sight of our commitment to treating our customers, our industry associates, and our employees as people, first and foremost. Our Founder, Harry Vignocchi and our President Donna Vignocchi, lead by example in maintaining a clear and consistent standard of Interaction that is focused on fairness, reliability, and accountability.

The corporate culture of ILT is founded on the concepts of art and life, striving to create artistic expressions in our designs and installations leading to enhanced living and working environments, ILT has made its mark as an exceptionally effective alternative to the industry standards. Our philosophy of doing business can be summarized in a simple phrase, "do the right thing." ILT has successfully applied this simple concept to its business practices, resulting in our current status as one of the premier providers of quality landscaping services in Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin.
