MUNICIPAL FORESTRY INTERNSHIP PROGRAM (MFI-P) 2011

USDA FOREST SERVICE URBAN FORESTRY PROGRAM

TEXAS AGRILIFE EXTENSION SERVICE

The Society of Municipal Arborists in conjunction with the USDA Forest Service Urban & Community Forestry Program and the Texas AgriLife Extension Service is launching a municipal forestry internship program for undergraduate college students interested in a career in Municipal Arboriculture. The primary objective of this program is to provide a hands-on experience alongside practicing professionals who will serve as mentors over the internship period and will work to help the students identify and develop the skills needed to be successful practitioners.

Only ten (10) positions are available nation-wide for the summer 2011 internship program.

Each student who is selected will be given:

- the opportunity to be a part of an elite group of interns;
- a housing stipend ($1200);
- a scholarship (travel included) to attend the 2011 Annual SMA Conference;
- a hourly wage of $12/hr for 10 weeks;
- and much, much more.

REQUIRED ESSAY QUESTIONS

Each applicant must also submit responses to EACH of the following.

1. In 250 words or less explain your career goals, your expectations of the internship program, and how the internship program will benefit by having you as a part of its 2011 class.
2. In 250 words or less respond to the following scenario as completely as possible.

Scenario: Assume that you manage the urban forest in a city that has a very limited budget for street tree maintenance. Several of the city's trees have a destructive, infectious disease. A recent inventory revealed that there are several hazardous trees along streets. The inventory also recommends pruning cycles. Every day you receive customer requests to prune trees, and you are strongly encouraged to plant trees.

Question: Describe how you would prioritize your maintenance activities to specifically address all of these items, and justify your rationale for doing so.

All applicants will be required to complete a background investigation prior to employment.
