The City Nature Zone Manager serves as Portland’s City Forester, ensuring the protection, safety and health of the City’s urban forest and managing associated arboricultural and horticultural programs. The City Forester oversees the administration and enforcement of applicable City codes and ordinances and resolves conflicts between trees and urban society. The incumbent works with community members, groups, and volunteers to achieve goals. Duties include supervising subordinate supervisors and staff, providing program direction, acting as a community liaison and coordinating with the Urban Forestry Commission. Additional duties include providing reports and data in support of program areas, and coordinating services with the other Portland Parks & Recreation managers, and other agencies.

SALARY: $5,550.00 - $7,426.00 Monthly
CLOSING DATE: 01/23/12 04:30 PM
