2015 Roaring Fork Club Horticulture Internship Opportunity

Horticulture internship / Summer 2015

Company/Organization: Roaring Fork Club, Basalt, Colorado

* Wage/Salary: $13/hr., plus housing

* Job Description: The Horticulture Intern will play an important role in our teams, involvement with the installation and maintenance of landscapes at each of our 50 privately owned Cabins as well as all common areas on the grounds at the Roaring Fork Club. The Horticulture Intern's responsibilities will include the following:

Primary Tasks
- Maintain highest standards for maintenance and installation serving the club's elite members.
- Care for diverse plantings of trees, shrubs, vines, perennials, grasses, bulbs, and annuals.
- Hand water and monitor irrigation of plantings, hanging baskets, and color pots at cabins and around golf course common areas.
- Perform seasonal landscape work including pruning, clean-up, bulb planting, dividing, transplanting, and leaf removal.
- Scout for pests and disease.
- Clean-up litter.
- Help with planting and care of annuals.
- Maintain equipment, tools, and task sheet daily.

Qualifications:
- Currently studying Horticulture
- Detail oriented, with considerable attention to order.
- Willingness to work as part of a team or alone, in all weather conditions.
- Ability to perform heavy physical labor on a daily basis and have the ability to lift 50lbs.
- Experience in landscape maintenance
- Knowledgeable in plant material and weed identification.
- Able to work overtime, weekends, and holidays as needed
- Valid driver's license

* Application Instructions: Please send cover letter and resume to tcoia@rfclub.com

Online Application Address: www.roaringforkclub.com